To our Patrons.

WE return our grateful acknowledgments for your generous patronage. January has come and our creditors call aloud for their money, to you we look for relief. We cannot leave our shop to call and see you, but avail ourselves of this opportunity to inform you that under existing circumstances, to wait longer for our money, is impossible. To those who wish, in these hard times, to save cost, we would say, call and settle with us.

Amite Circuit Court, April Term, 1840.

Minor M. Whitney, vs.

Shuler & Travis.

Attachment for $225.

IT appears that the defendants are non-residents of the State of Mississippi, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be levied upon them. It is therefore notified that unless they be and appear on or before the first day of the next April Term of said Court, to be held at Liberty on the second Monday in April, 1840, in the said county of Amite, and put in special bail, and plead or demur to plaintiff's action, judgment final will be rendered against them, and the estate attached condemned and taken in execution, and also the effect of the hands of the garnishee will be disposed of according to law, to satisfy the plaintiff's claim and costs.
